

e. 32,260

Front Edit Other
Page Page Page

Date: FEB 15 1954

DAR Colonial Breakfast To Honor Good Citizens

Mrs. James Montague, a member of Crookston Chapter, DAR, Crookston, Minn., attending the meeting of Marcus Whitman Chapter on Thursday, in the home of Mrs. Clare Dobler, spoke briefly of the activities of her own chapter, of which she is a charter member and a past regent.

Red rosebuds centered the tea table which was covered with a cloth of embroidered linen, combined with lace squares, an importation from Hong Kong. Assisting Mrs. Dobler was Mrs. Charles Dobler, with Mrs. E. L. Maddocks pouring coffee.

Mrs. Jay Kempkes reported that the genealogical papers of Anne Ready had been accepted in Washington, D.C., making her an accredited member of DAR. She also named the girl candidates for Washington Good Citizen, who will be guests at the Colonial Breakfast, together with their mothers and high school advisers. They are Linda Bonifaci, Marysville; Victoria Kahn, Everett High School; Renee Fletcher, Cascade High School; Jamie Bohannon, Arlington; and Cheryl Provazek, Lake Stevens.

The regent, Mrs. G. J. Milliron, proudly announced that an original signature of Elisha P. Ferry, first governor of Washington State had been obtained, to be sent to the National Archives where signatures of other governors are displayed.

FINAL PLANS for the Colonial Breakfast to take place on Thursday at noon at the Yacht Club, were made, and any further reservations must be made by calling the chairman, Mrs. Charles Ericson, AL 2-3612. Mrs. Nelson Kilbourne, DAR historian general, will be speaker, as it is impossible for the president general, Mrs. Robert V. H. Duncan, to be in Washington State at this time.

Miss Mattie Wood, chairman of the nominating committee named delegates to the state conference in Seattle March 2

3 and 4, at the Olympic Hotel. They are Mmes. Milliron, Verne Sievers, R. A. Johnson, D. W. Younce, M. F. Gilmer, Ericson, Parker Gallaspy and Clifford Knudson. Alternates are Mmes. Kempkes, George A. Becker, E. L. Maddocks, Clare Dobler, Miss Alice Getchell, Dr. Ethel Truax, Mrs. Lillian Donovan and Mrs. Fred Huddle.

For national defense program, Mrs. Younce read an article by former President Harry Truman, explaining the original purpose of the Central Intelligence Agency, which was organized by himself, during his administration. He said he felt the need of receiving the information, gleaned by the different sources, delivered directly to him, to be considered by himself, instead of receiving it influenced by the opinions of those who would ultimately pass it on to him.

Marcus Whitman members were invited to a patriotic meeting on Thursday evening, hosted by the American Legion, in Legion Hall.

Press: Truman, Harry S.

Orig 1 Daughters of the American Revolution

8